"Oh! How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning" is a song written by Irving Berlin in 1918 that gives a comic perspective on military life. Berlin composed the song as an expression of protest against the indignities of Army routine shortly after being drafted into the United States Army in 1918. The song soon made the rounds of camp and became popular with other soldiers, partly because hatred of ...

Veterans Day, on the other hand, honors ALL American veterans, both living and dead. In fact, Veterans Day is largely intended to thank LIVING veterans for dedicated and loyal service to their country. November 11 of each year is the day that we ensure veterans know that we deeply appreciate the sacrifices they have made in the lives to keep our country free.

Q: Did the Indians ambush Custer at Medicine Tail Coulee? A: Medicine Tail Coulee is the Bermuda Triangle of the Little Bighorn. It's the place where many of the most persistent mysteries of the battle converge. For instance, how could a handful of Indians have stopped Custer's charge in the middle of the river, as White Cow Bull, George Glenn, Curley and Pretty Shield described?
