The term 'angel' is derived from the Greek word, angelos, and means "messenger." Angels are considered by many to be servants of God, acting as emissaries, messengers or facilitators who can bring change to humanity when directed by the Divine; but, this belief may hold a very limited view of the angelic.

Objection 1. It would seem that the angels were created in beatitude. For it is stated (De Eccl. Dogm. xxix) that "the angels who continue in the beatitude wherein they were created, do not of their nature possess the excellence they have." Therefore the angels were created in beatitude..
Objection 2. Further, the angelic nature is nobler than the corporeal creature.
