The New York Nightmare entered The League in 1978, to fill the void left when the New York Shamrocks team was wiped out in a plane crash. The League originally proposed the name Crusaders for the franchise but Nightmare was selected instead based on the infamous headline from the 1967 Shamrocks crash.

I did a fair amount of research online about Nightmare: New York prior to going through it and was excited to learn that I'd be encountering a rat king, David Berkowitz (AKA, The Son of Sam), Typhoid Mary, and Mole People. I also read something about seeing John Lennon get shot, but if that happened during the haunted house, I didn't notice it, which sums up the major flaw of Nightmare: New ...
