10/7/13 'Well done, Mr Wise!' (Sadly, not a relative of mine. . .) The Anti-Vaccination movement of the late 19th-century had a particularly strong cell in the East End; in the Old Nichol, home to the poorest East Londoners, destitute parents faced cumulative fines for refusing to allow doctors to vaccinate their infants against smallpox.

Now where were we? Oh yes...on our way to Vegas. To recap as briefly as I can since I can sense you are all eager to jump ahead, the girls have left the mansion behind for the weekend and are headed off to Las Vegas for what will ostensibly be a weekend spent assisting a charity telethon but what the girls see as a chance to party like debauched rock stars fulfilling every fantasy they might have.

My post last week touched on being an introvert. It brought a lot of my introverted friends out from their inner reverie to share a few thoughts they'd developed on their internal brainstorming-for-one white board. The common thread of our chats: the challenges we face dealing with (read: living with) extroverted friends and loved ones. more
