VISI by Vero - anyone using? Is anyone using this software? It's by the same company that makes the Peps wire edm software. ... Right now we do our Surfacing and modelling in VISI 16 and then convert a step file to do our machining in VISI 15. ... VISI is more of a die mold software, not as much production machining... but that's not to say it ...

In the mid 1990s, its VISI-CAD and VISI-CAM products were the first to use the PC implementation of the Parasolid kernel. The company was incorporated in 1997 under the name Deepcredit Limited, and then renamed as VI Group Plc in 1998 prior to its listing on the London Stock Market. In October 2007, the company was renamed to Vero Software.
